ABOUT

THE AVOCA QUALITY CONSORTIUM™

The Avoca Quality Consortium (AQC) is a member-based pre-competitive collaborative comprised of the world's leading stakeholders in clinical development whose mission is to create innovative solutions that improve the execution of outsourced trials. The AQC consists of 70+ pharma, biotech, CRO, and clinical service providers and industry experts from outsourcing, clinical operations, quality, regulatory, procurement, innovation, and operations. Each year, AQC Members attend Summits in the US and Europe to discuss the challenges they face in drug development and innovative ways to bring efficiency, quality, and risk mitigation to the forefront of clinical trials. The Avoca Quality Consortium was founded in 2011 and is sponsored by Pfizer and Lilly.
